The above-entitled matter is currently scheduled for a hearing on October 30, 2020, at 9:30 a.m., for an appearance on a Form 12 Petition alleging that the defendant violated the terms of his supervised release. On October 15, 2020, the defendant was taken into custody by the Concord Police Department following the October 8, 2020 probation search of his residence. He was then charged in a second amended complaint, filed by the Contra Costa District Attorney's Office, with intimidating a witness/victim, threatening a public officer, and several hate crimes enhancements. On October 20, 2020, the defendant was held to answer on the amended charges and enhancements. At the end of the hearing, his state bail was ordered revoked and forfeited upon a finding that he posed a continued danger

1 to the community. The defendant's next state court hearings are set for November 2, 2020 for 2 preliminary hearing and November 10, 2020 for arraignment on the amended charges. Accordingly, the 3 parties respectfully request that the Court vacate the upcoming hearing date.

4 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
